A Note from the Pastor

As previously announced at worship on Father's Day, your new Associate Pastor for Family Life – Andrew R. Stager – was approved by Catawba Presbytery at their summer meeting at Bonclarken on June 10, 2008. The call was read and approved, as was the plan for him to begin work at First Rock Hill around September 1 as a student supply. He lacks one course in finishing his Master of Divinity degree, and thus, the need to begin as a student supply. The call will take effect upon his ordination, following his graduation in early December.

Andy and his wife Ellie, are the proud parents of two boys – Deacon and Owen. Deacon is two years old, and Owen is five months of age. The family looks forward to moving to Rock Hill later in the summer, and they hope to have the opportunity to visit at some point before their work actually commences. They are presently living in Virginia for the summer months as Andy completes a prior commitment to serve as a summer intern at a church in the Draper Valley area off I-81.

Your delegates to the meeting of the General Synod (John Barron and Joe Patrick) had an opportunity to meet Andy and spend some time with him, and John and Kathy Barron, Joe Patrick and Sarah and I all had the opportunity to eat a meal together. Feel free to ask these folks about their impressions of your new associate. All were excited, and are eager to better know this young man and his family in the days to come.

If you would like to write them a note of welcome, you may send your correspondence to: Andy and Ellie Stager
